NETSCOUT™

Jean Bua

Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Jean Bua has served as NetScout's Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer since November 2011. She joined the company in September 2010 as Vice President, Finance, in conjunction with the company's succession planning. In her current role, Ms. Bua is responsible for investor relations, treasury, financial planning and analysis, real estate development, accounting, and compliance.

Ms. Bua has played a key role in executing on the financial aspects of our strategy during a period in which the company's market capitalization grew by 300%. During her tenure, we have successfully completed and integrated five acquisitions.

Before joining NetScout, Ms. Bua served as Executive Vice President, Finance and Treasurer of American Tower Corporation, a leading provider of infrastructure for the wireless telecommunications industry. While at American Tower, she was a critical contributor to multiple equity and debt financings, and numerous acquisitions that enabled the company to more than double in revenue through both acquisition and organic growth.

Prior to American Tower, Ms. Bua spent nine years at Iron Mountain, Inc., concluding as Senior Vice President, Chief Accounting Officer, and Worldwide Controller. During her tenure, Iron Mountain successfully consolidated the records management industry and grew from annual revenue of $100 million to over $2 billion through more than 100 domestic and international acquisitions. Previously, she held senior positions at Duracraft Corp. and Keithley Instruments. She was a management consultant at Ernst & Young and an auditor at KPMG.

Ms. Bua earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, summa cum laude, and a Master of Business from the University of Rhode Island.
